I. HISTORY OF THE CHURCH.

"We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God, we will set up our banners." Ps. xx:5.

The first settlement in Elyria was made March 18th, 1817. During the early years, the growth of the town was slow, and among the early settlers there were very few professing christians. Notwithstanding this the Sabbath was from the first observed, not only as a day of rest from ordinary vocations, but religious services were regularly held on that day.

With one or two exceptions no Congregational or Presbyterian Churches had been organized in that part of the Connecticut Western Reserve lying west of the Cuyahoga River, at the time of the first settlement at Elyria, and for more than seven years, Missionaries of the Connecticut Missionary Society ministered to the little company accustomed to meet for Sabbath worship. Reverends Alvan Hyde, Jr., William Hanford, Joseph Treat, Caleb Pitkin, Alfred H. Betts, Lot B. Sullivan and Asahel Gaylord may be mentioned as those who most frequently ministered to the people during those early years, and when no minister could be obtained, a sermon of good old Dr. Joseph Lathrop, of West Springfield, Mass., was read on the Sabbath, provision having been made for such lack of preaching, by bringing from Massachusetts six or seven bound volumes of the Doctor's sermons.

On the 30th day of October, 1822, a Church was organized in the adjoining township of Carlisle, consisting of seven members, six of whom (one was dismissed to unite with another Church) and one who had been admitted, subsequently united with this Church, as will appear from the following copy of a record of the organization of a Church of Christ in Elyria.

"ELYRIA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 24th, 1824.

Agreeably to previous notice a number of the inhabitants of this place met after public worship, to consider the propriety of organizing a Church of Christ. Present Rev. Alfred H. Betts (a minister of the Presb'y of Huron) and Rev. Daniel W. Lathrop, Joseph Treat and Caleb Pitkin, Missionaries from the Missionary Society of Connecticut.

The following persons presented themselves for examination, viz: Luther Lane, Celia Ely and Pamela Beebe, from the First Church in West Springfield, Mass. Abby W. Lathrop, from the First Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn, L. I. William Smith, from the Church in Sheffield, and Harriet Hamlin, Julia West, Pearly Douglass, Ann Palmer and Pamela Manter, who had never made a public profession of religion. After prayer for divine direction, the examination was commenced and continued 'till the time for public worship in the evening. Adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Concluded with prayer."

"THURSDAY MORNING, 9 O'CLOCK, NOV. 25TH, 1824.

Met agreeably to adjournment. After prayer the examination was resumed and concluded. All the individuals above named were approved, and it was judged expedient that they should be constituted a Church of the Lord Jesus Christ. After sermon by the Rev. Alfred H. Betts, these persons presented themselves before the congregation, made a public profession of their faith, and entered into covenant with God and with each other, in the form of the Confession of Faith and Covenant adopted by the Presbyteries of Grand River, Portage and Huron for the Churches under their care.

They were then declared to be a regular Church of Christ, charged to walk worthy of their high and holy vocation, and commended to God in prayer.

ALFRED H. BETTS, }
DAN'L W. LATHROP, } Ministers of the Gospel."

"On the same day, November 25th, 1824, the following terms of agreement between the Church in Elyria and the Church in Carlisle were drafted and circulated in the respective Churches.

Terms of agreement between the Church in Elyria and the Church in Carlisle:

Considering the many evils to which small Churches standing alone are necessarily exposed, and the desirableness that christians who live so near each other that they can conveniently enjoy Gospel ordinances together and be under the pastoral care of the same Minister, should be united in one body, and exercise mutual watch and care over each other, we, the members of the Churches in Elyria and Carlisle, having severally adopted the same Confession of Faith, Covenant and Articles of Practice, hereby agree to unite in one Church, and adopt the following:

ARTICLES OF UNION AND COVENANT, viz:

1. The united Church shall be known by the name of The Presbyterian Church in Elyria.

2. It is understood and considered expedient that for the present, separate religious meetings be statedly held at our several places of social worship as has heretofore been customary, except on communion days, when, as far as practicable we will all meet together.

3. It is agreed that until further arrangements are made, the communion season shall be attended regularly, two-thirds of the time at the place of meeting in Elyria and the other third at the place of meeting in Carlisle, it being understood that the portion of the Church living in Carlisle, will contribute at least so much towards the support of a Pastor, mutually invited to take charge of the united Church, as will naturally entitle them to such share of his labors as this arrangement will necessarily give them.

4. It is mutually agreed that whenever the number of members and other circumstances in this Church shall be such that a separation is considered expedient, those members of the Church who naturally fall within the limits of the present Church in Carlisle, shall be detached from the Church in Elyria and be recognized as the Church in Carlisle, and entitled to all the privileges of a separate Church on the ground of their present organization.

On these conditions, we, the members of the Church in Elyria and of the Church in Carlisle, mutually and cordially receive and embrace each other, as fellow heirs of the grace of God and members of the same Church, and do hereby solemnly covenant and promise, mutually to watch over each other, and if necessary reprove with christian meekness and brotherly love, and to submit to the watch and discipline of this Church, endeavoring in all things to promote its prosperity and to walk worthy of the vocation wherewith we are called.

The union of the two Churches under the above compact continued until August 3, 1833, when, at a stated Church meeting, on the request of the members residing in Carlisle, it was voted that they be permitted to withdraw and resume their original Church organization.

After the organization of the American Home Missionary Society in 1826, this Church received aid from that Society for several years, and so soon as it was able to provide for its own support, it commenced making contributions, which have been continued until the present time, to the Society from which it received assistance when unable of itself to maintain the institutions of the Gospel.

A Resolution adopted Sept. 5th, 1832, states the appreciation of the Church at the time of the claims of the A. H. M. S. upon the Churches, and the disposition of this Church to respond to those claims.

"In view of the great benefits resulting from the operations of the A. H. M. Society, and sensibly feeling that its operations have been peculiarly blessed to this people, and considering it not only our duty but our high privilege to be co-workers with it in the great work of disseminating the Gospel in our own land, thereby lending our aid to the preparing it to become eminently instrumental in the conversion of the world—therefore RESOLVED: That we will use all efforts in our power to sustain and assist in its operations."

This Church has pursued the scriptural course of having settled pastors.

THE FIRST PASTOR, DANIEL W. LATHROP, was born at Norwich, Conn., June 17th, 1798. While engaged in a course of study preparatory for entering college, his health became impaired, so that his physician peremptorily required his abandonment of study and that he engage in a business requiring more than usual physical activity.

Under this advice, he, with a cousin, enlisted in a joint enterprise, of clearing 640 acres of land in the township of Ellsworth, Trumbull Co., Ohio, requiring three years of hard labor. His health being then fully restored, he again directed his attention to study, preparatory to assuming the responsibilities of a Minister of the Gospel of Christ.

In May, 1820, he attended the meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church at Philadelphia, as Lay-Commissioner from Hartford, Ohio, Presbytery.

During the sessions of the Assembly he had opportunity for consultation with eminent Ministers of the Church, which resulted in the determination to qualify himself for the Gospel Ministry.

He prosecuted both Classical and Theological studies under Rev. Dr. Amzi Armstrong of Bloomfield, New Jersey.

In August, 1823, he was licensed to preach, by the Presbytery of Jersey, and a few weeks thereafter, on the request of the Missionary Society of Connecticut, he was, by the same Presbytery, ordained as a Minister of Christ. Soon after his ordination he received a commission from the Missionary Society of Connecticut as their Missionary in the "Connecticut Western Reserve in Ohio."

He returned to this State, not to resume the labor of clearing away the forests, but to plant Churches of Jesus Christ and labor therein.

The following winter and spring were passed mostly in the counties of Lorain and Huron. On several occasions he preached in Elyria, and was urgently solicited by the people to locate here. He also received invitations to locate in other places.

In the Spring of 1824 he went East to consummate an arrangement made before he entered upon his study for the ministry, and on the 8th of June was married at Brooklyn, New York, to Miss Abby Woolsey Howland, daughter of Nathaniel and Elizabeth (Coit) Howland, by Rev. Joseph Sanford, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn, of which Church she was a member and Superintendent of its Sabbath School. Their wedding trip was delayed for a few weeks after their marriage, when, having provided such articles as could be readily transported, they made the journey from Brooklyn via Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Cleveland to Elyria, arriving here in September, when Mr. Lathrop entered upon his ministerial labors.

He assisted in the organization of the Church as above mentioned in November, 1824, and on June 29th, 1825, was installed as Pastor by the Presbytery of Huron.

After five years of faithful pastoral labor, and when he had firmly established himself in the affections of his people, when all visible aspects of the pastorate were as encouraging as at any time before, in the midst of a Sabbath morning discourse, his life work was suddenly arrested by the failure of his voice, involving for a time an entire loss of the power of utterance and a general prostration of strength. This led to his formal resignation on July 12th, 1830, and the dissolution by Presbytery of the pastoral relation August 18th, 1830.

For more than eighteen years subsequently Mr. Lathrop remained a resident of Elyria, being engaged for several years as agent of the American Home Missionary Society in Northern Ohio. In the Fall of 1848 he removed to New Haven, Conn., where he resided until after the death of his wife. The following extract from his own record respecting that event, it is deemed fitting to insert here:

"There (in the New Haven Cemetery) in February, 1872, was placed the "precious form of her, whose spirit departed on the 25th of that month, "who had been to me for so many years, and through so many scenes of "gladness and of sorrow, the one in whom continually, and more and more "with every added experience, my soul delighted, trusted and had sweet "fellowship, the one who was given to me of God, to be in all circum-"stances, my helper and my joy, who while guiding the affairs of the house "with discretion, did also by her kindly, tender and wise counsel—and "above all by her earnest and believing prayer—help me to be a man, to "be a Christian, and to be a Christian Minister."

Mr. Lathrop is still living with his son George Lathrop (his only surviving child) at Jackson, Mich., at the advanced age of 82 years. He spent a Sabbath in Elyria a few months since, occupying the pulpit and preaching an able and impressive sermon, apparently with the vigor of his early years, from REV. III: 20.

He died at Jackson Mich. Tuesday March 27th 1883.

THE SECOND PASTOR, REV. JOHN J. SHIPHERD,

Having been commissioned by the American Home Missionary Society to supply destitute Churches on the Reserve, came to Ohio in 1830, and in October of that year to Elyria. He was installed February 2nd, 1831. His labors were especially blessed in the outpouring of God's Spirit and in the very large accession of members to this and other churches. After a short pastorate of less than two years, in the hope of more extensive usefulness in establishing an institution for the education of youth of both sexes, he asked and obtained leave to resign, and on the 29th day of Oct., 1832, preached his farewell sermon. Soon after his dismissal, he, with others associated with him, made a settlement in the township of Russia, in Lorain County, to which they gave the name of Oberlin. He was also instrumental and assisted in the founding of a similar institution at Olivet, Eaton Co., Michigan.

He was born March 28th, 1802, at Granville, Washington Co., N. Y., and died Sept. 16th, 1844, at Olivet, Mich.

THE THIRD PASTOR, REV. JAMES H. EELLS,

Was born at Westmorland, Oneida Co., N. Y., August 27th, 1808, graduated at Hamilton College, N.Y., in 1827, and studied Theology at Princeton Theological Seminary. In March 1833, he entered upon a term of three months supply of the pulpit, leaving in June and returning and resuming his labors in November.

He was ordained and installed Pastor February 12th, 1834. On the same day the then new house of worship (a frame building on South street) was dedicated. Mr. Eells' pastorate continued until April 1st, 1836, when the Church voted to concur with their Pastor in his request to Presbytery that the relation be dissolved. Soon after leaving Elyria Mr. Eells was installed Pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Perrysburgh, Ohio, and was drowned in attempting to cross the Maumee River on the ice, Dec. 7th, 1836.

From April, 1836, to and including June, 1837, Prof. Henry Cowles and Rev. R. H. Conklin officiated as stated supply, the latter during most of the time.

3 1833 02279 8000

THE FOURTH PASTOR, REV. LEWIS H. LOSS,

Graduated at Hamilton College, N. Y., in 1827, studied Theology with Rev. Abijah Crane of Westmorland, N. Y., was settled over the Presbyterian Church at New York Mills, from which place he came to Elyria in July, 1837, and on Sept. 26th of that year was installed by Lorain Presbytery. Sermon by Rev. Asa Meahan, D.D., President of Oberlin College, Charge to the Pastor by Prof. Henry Cowles, and Charge to the Church by Rev. Alfred H. Betts.

At a meeting of the Church Sept. 13th, 1841, the Pastor stated that his health was such that he should probably be unable to preach for a long time, and therefore requested the Church to unite with him in requesting Presbytery to dismiss him from his pastoral charge, whereupon the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved. That we tenderly sympathize with our Pastor in the afflictive providence which has for the present laid him aside, and that we extend to him the assurance of our continued confidence and kind regard."

At a meeting of Presbytery at Sandusky, the day following, Sept. 14th, 1841, the pastoral relation was dissolved.

For three years after, Mr. Loss was prevented by a throat affection from preaching, when, having regained his health, he accepted a call to a Church in Rockford, Ill.

He was born at Augusta, Oneida Co., N. Y., July 1st, 1801, and died at Marshalltown, Iowa, July 10th, 1865.

After the dismission of Rev. L. H. Loss, the Rev. B. Paige labored very acceptably as stated supply, declining a call to the pastorate on account of impaired health.

THE FIFTH PASTOR, REV. DAVID A. GROSVENOR,

Graduated at Yale College in 1826, was Pastor of the Congregational Church in Uxbridge, Mass., from August, 1831, to May, 1842. He was installed by the Presbytery of Elyria February 9th, 1843, his brother, Rev. Mason Grosvenor of Hudson, Ohio, preaching the sermon, and the Charge being given by Rev. Dan'l W. Lathrop, the first Pastor.

Mr. Grosvenor's pastorate continued nine years, during which the present Church edifice was erected, and was dedicated May 17th, 1848, being at that time one of the best Churches in Northern Ohio.

On March 28th, 1852, he requested the Church to unite with him in a request to Presbytery to dissolve the relation then existing, and from that date performed no further pastoral labor. No action was taken by Presbytery on this matter until the next November, when that body met in Elyria, and Mr. Grosvenor was dismissed and his successor installed. He was Pastor of the Congregational Church in Medina from March, 1853, to May, 1861.

He was born at Craftsbury, Vermont, July 10th, 1802, and died of Cholera in Cincinnati, Ohio, August 11th, 1866.

THE SIXTH PASTOR, REV. TIMOTHY M. HOPKINS,

Was installed Nov. 4th, 1852, by the Presbytery of Elyria, and was dismissed January 22, 1854. He was born at Pittsford, Vermont, July 8th, 1800, and died at Hannibal, Missouri, April 20th, 1871, his death being occasioned by the falling of a timber on his head, from the roof of a Church which was being erected in that city, by the Society of which he was Pastor.

THE SEVENTH PASTOR, REV. FRANCIS A. WILBER,

A graduate of Wabash College, Indiana, and of Lane Theological Seminary, came here as a Licentiate of Cincinnati Presbytery in April, 1854, and after supplying the pulpit one year, was ordained and installed as Pastor, April 4th, 1855, by Elyria Presbytery. Sermon by Rev. Mr. Cole, Charge to the Pastor by Rev. Ansel R. Clark, and to the people by Rev. Alfred H. Betts, who assisted in the organization of the Church and had been present at the installation of every Pastor.

On this occasion he said he had several times before delivered charges to the people of this Church on the installation of their Pastors, and desiring to make this charge emphatic, he said, "now you have a good Pastor, I charge you to keep him." The good man was never called to perform that duty again to this people. He closed his labors and entered upon the reward of the faithful servant, at his home in Brownhelm, Sept. 8th, 1860, having been actively engaged for forty years in organizing and ministering to the Churches, and was known throughout this part of our State as Father Betts.

Mr. Wilber sustained the relation of Pastor for a longer term than any one who had preceded, or has thus far succeeded him. He preached his farewell sermon on Sunday, Aug. 1st, 1866, and soon after removed to Wabash, Indiana, where for several years he and his estimable wife had charge of a Female Seminary. From Wabash they removed to Franklin County, Ohio, to assume the charge of an Educational School with which they are now connected. He was born at Barnard, Vermont, Dec. 12th, 1823.

THE EIGHTH PASTOR, REV. FERGUS L. KENYON,

Was born Dec. 4th, 1834, in Scotland, graduated at the Hartford Conn. Grammar School, studied Theology at Princeton, N. J., was settled for a short time over a Presbyterian Church at Orange, N. J. was installed Pastor of this Church by Cleveland Presbytery July 2nd, 1867, and was dismissed January 1st, 1870.

After the dismission of Rev. F. L. Kenyon, the Pulpit was occupied on the Sabbath by Prof. Judson Smith most of the time for fourteen months, then for several months by Rev. Charles H. Wheeler.

THE NINTH PASTOR, REV. EDWIN E. WILLIAMS.

Sept. 10th, 1872, in accordance with a vote of the Church that "the Trustees of the Society be requested to correspond with Rev. E. E. Williams, (then Pastor of the Congregational Church at Warsaw, N. Y.,) and if possible secure his services for the term of one year, with a view to permanent settlement," a call was extended, which was accepted, and he entered upon his labors Sunday, November 24th, 1872.

Dec. 9th, 1873, at a regular quarterly meeting of Cleveland Presbytery, held at Elyria, Rev. Edwin E. Williams was installed Pastor of this Church. Sermon by Rev. Hiram C. Hayden, D. D., Charge to the Pastor by Prof. E. P. Barrows, D. D., and to the people by Rev. James A. Skinner.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Gather the people together, men, women and children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear and that they may learn, and fear the Lord your God, and observe to do all the words of this law; and that their children may hear, and learn to fear the Lord your God, as long as ye live in the land.—DEUT. XXXI:12, 13.

A Sunday School was organized in Elyria before the organization of any Church, as appears from the record of a "Meeting of the Sunday School Society in the Township of Elyria on the 9th day of May, A. D. 1824," at which meeting "Mr. Clary and Luther Lane were chosen Superintendents of the School." This school thus organized was connected with this Church when the Church was organized Nov. 25th, 1824. A Library, consisting of books contributed by the families of the township, was provided at the opening of the school, which from that time to the present has been maintained. It has been impossible to obtain the records of the school for the first twenty years, nor is it known whether they are in existence; the names however of those who have served as Superintendents are known, and the terms of service can be given, not with absolute certainty during the early years, but approximating so nearly as to be sufficiently reliable. Deacon Elijah Clary, one of the first Superintendents, resided here only about one year after his appointment, when Rev. D.W. Lathrop was appointed, and he and Deacon Lane served until Nathan Stevens was chosen, and from the time of entrance of the latter upon the Superintendency until 1867 there were no Assistants.

An Infant class was formed in 1858, Miss A. M. Crandall, Teacher, which was continued until the completion of the Chapel in the Fall of 1864, when it became a separate Department, most efficiently and successfully conducted by Miss Crandall and her sister, Miss Caroline Crandall, until near the close of the year 1879.

After more than twenty years of continued and faithful service, Miss A. M. Crandall, was compelled, on account of impaired health, to surrender her charge, still retaining a deep interest in the prosperity of the school with which she was so long connected.

In the vicinity of the town there are six Sunday Schools, all under the charge of members of this Church, each having an enrollment of from forty to more than one hundred and fifty. These schools meet together once a year, when reports are submitted by their Officers, giving interesting statements of progress which show clearly that the blessing of God attends the labors of those engaged in this work.

The following is a list of those who have served as Superintendents of the Sunday School, with term of service, from the organization of the School to the present time.

NOTE.—The large number entered as removed by Discipline in 1880, includes all those whose names have been standing on the roll for many years, of whom nothing is now known. Owing to the imperfect keeping of the Records, at times, doubtless a considerable portion of these received letters of dismission, and others after leaving Elyria, having no permanent residence for a considerable time, failed to apply for letters, and finally united with other churches on confession of faith.

II. GOVERNMENT OF THE CHURCH.

"That thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the Church of the living God." I Tim., III: 15.

CONSTITUTION.

(Adopted May 16, 1879.)

ARTICLE I.—NAME.

This Church shall be called "The First Congregational Church of Elyria."

ARTICLE II.—ORGANIC PRINCIPLES.

SECTION 1. Church Rights and Privileges. The Bible is the only infallible and authoritative directory of the principles of Church organization and discipline.

SEC. 2. According to the Scriptures, a congregation, or company of Christians, voluntarily associating and covenanting together to worship God and celebrate his ordinances, is a Church.

As such, it is invested with all the rights, privileges and duties attached by Christ to his visible Church, is authorized to adopt and administer its own government and laws; to elect its own officers; admit and discipline its members; provide for the proper ministration of worship and the ordinances; and to act authoritatively and conclusively on all appropriate business, independently of external control.

SEC. 3. The sovereignty of the individual Church, under Christ, is in the membership of that Church, all authority and office within it emanating from their will, ascertained by a majority of suffrages.

Sec. 4. While the individual Church, in matters of doctrine, order and discipline, is an independent body, and amenable to no ecclesiastical authority, it is still under obligation to extend to other Churches of Christ, and to receive from them that fellowship, advice and assistance commanded by the word of God, and required by common discipleship to a common Saviour.

Sec. 5. Suffrage. — This Church recognizes credible evidence of Christian character as entitling the possessor to Baptism and the Lord's Supper, and to Christian watch and fellowship, but not as necessarily conferring the right to co-ordinate power in the government of the Church. All members over eighteen years of age, not under Church censure or discipline, and adhering to the belief and covenant of the Church, have a right of suffrage within it.

ARTICLE III.—OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES.

Sec. 1. The stated officers of this church shall be a Pastor, an Examining Committee, Clerk, Treasurer, Committee on Missions, and a Ladies Committee.

Sec. 2. All officers shall be elected by ballot, except the Committee on Missions and the Ladies Committee; provided, that the pastor shall be chosen by the concurrent vote of the Church and Society, the Church to take the initiative in the election. All elections shall be determined by a vote of the majority of the members of the Church present and voting. All officers, except the Pastor, shall serve during the term for which they are elected, and until their successors, duly elected, shall assume their duties. Official vacancies (except in the Pastorate) occurring at any time, may be filled, for the unexpired term, at any business meeting of the Church, notice to such effect having been given from the pulpit on the previous Sabbath.

Sec. 3. In the settlement of a Pastor, the Church shall act by an Ecclesiastical Council, called in the usual manner. In the dismission of a Pastor, such Council shall be mutually called to act upon the question, whenever the Pastor shall desire it, or whenever the Church shall so vote in a meeting for that specified purpose, of which notice shall be given from the pulpit on the preceding Sabbath. The decision of the Mutual Council, so called, shall be binding upon both parties.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the Pastor to watch over the spiritual interests of the Church, preach the Gospel, administer the Sacraments, and ordinarily to act as Moderator in the meetings of the Church and Examining Committee.

SEC. 5. THE EXAMINING COMMITTEE shall consist of six, who shall be so elected that the term of two members shall expire each year after the 31st day of December next. In addition to the above the Clerk shall be a member ex officio, and act as clerk, or recording officer, of said Committee, and Brothers Elijah DeWitt and Edmund W. West, who have heretofore been elected Deacons for life, shall, during their lives, be members, any four of whom shall constitute a quorum. In case of a tie on any question, the Moderator shall have a casting vote. In the absence of the Pastor, the Committee may appoint one of its own number Moderator pro tem., except when a member of the Committee shall be before them for discipline, when the Pastor of a sister church shall be called to act as Moderator.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the Examining Committee:

To make provision for the regular observance of the Lord's Supper, and to assist in its administration.

To distribute the charities of the Church, to minister especially to such as are poor, or in any affliction, and to act as peacemakers where differences arise in the Church.

In the temporary absence, or disability, or at the request of the Pastor, to provide a supply for the pulpit, in connection, or co-operation, with the Trustees of the Society.

To take charge, personally or by proxy, of religious meetings of the Church, for which provision is not otherwise made.

This committee shall be charged with the general supervision of the spiritual affairs of the Church and congregation, examine and recommend candidates for admission to the Church, grant letters of dismission and recommendation, and examine and decide all cases of discipline, in conformity with, and subject to, the provisions hereinafter prescribed.

Stated meetings shall be held as often as once in two months, for the consideration and transaction of appropriate business, of which meetings a record shall be kept, which shall be submitted to the inspection of the Church at each regular meeting, and at such other times as occasion shall require or the Church shall direct.

The Pastor shall have power to convene the Examining Committee at any time, and he shall always convene them on request of any two members of the Church.

SEC. 7. THE CLERK shall keep a full record of the business meetings of the Church and of the Examining Committee; a register of the members of the Church, with dates of admission, dismission, or death, together with a record of baptisms. He shall give seasonable notice of the meetings of the Church, notify officers, delegates and committees of their appointment, and conduct the official correspondence of the Church.

SEC. 8. THE TREASURER shall receive and keep the moneys of the Church, subject to its order, receive the benevolent contributions not otherwise herein provided for, and pay them over to those authorized to receive them, whose orders or receipts shall be his vouchers. He shall present his report at the meeting in January, annually.

SEC. 9. THE COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS shall consist of a number corresponding with the number of regular objects for which contributions are taken in this Church, one member of which shall be assigned to, and have charge of, the particular object to which he is assigned. He shall receive all moneys contributed during the year for the Society or cause he represents, transmit the same to the proper receiving officer of such Society, and make report to the Church, at the meeting in January, of the amount collected and remitted.

SEC. 10. THE LADIES COMMITTEE shall consist of three members, whose duty it shall be to promote acquaintance and social intercourse in the Church and Society; to have regard to the sick, the destitute, the afflicted, and the thoughtful; to encourage attendance upon Divine Worship and the Sabbath School, and in general to aid the Pastor in his pastoral work.

ARTICLE IV.—BUSINESS MEETINGS.

SEC. 1. The regular business meetings of the Church shall be held as follows, to-wit: On the second Friday of January, May and October, in each year, and should it be deemed desirable, the meetings so designated may be adjourned to any other day which shall not postpone the election of officers for a longer period than sixty days beyond the day designated for such election.

SEC. 2. At the meeting in January reports shall be presented by the Pastor, by the Clerk, the Treasurer, the several Committees of the Church, and by the Superintendent of the Sabbath School, giving full statements of the state of the Church, its membership, admissions, dismissions, baptisms and deaths, the contributions for the Church and for benevolent objects, the condition of the Sabbath School, number of scholars, the attendance, number of additions to the Church, and such other items in each department as shall give all desirable information—the reports, in all cases, to be for the calendar year next preceding, which reports, as presented, shall be entered by the Clerk in the records of the Church.

SEC. 3. At the meeting in October, in each year, there shall be elected two members of the Examining Committee; provided, that at the meeting in October, 1879, two members shall be elected whose term shall expire on the 31st day of December, 1880, two on the 31st day of December, 1881, and two on the 31st day of December, 1882; and provided further, that the present members of the Church Committee shall hold their offices and discharge the duties prescribed for the Examining Committee in this Constitution, until the 31st day of December next, and that any vacancies occurring in this interval shall be filled by the Church.

There shall also be elected annually at the October meeting a Clerk, Treasurer, Committee on Missions, and the Ladies Committee, (these two Committees may be elected by a viva voce vote), whose term of office shall commence on the first day of January next thereafter, and close on the 31st day of December following.

SEC. 4. SPECIAL BUSINESS MEETINGS of the Church may be called by the Pastor or a majority of the Examining Committee, and shall be called by the Clerk on the written request of any seven Church voters of lawful age.

SEC. 5. All regular and special business meetings, except such as are herein otherwise provided for, shall be announced from the pulpit on the preceding Sabbath.

ARTICLE V.—MEMBERSHIP.

SEC. 1. ADMISSION OF MEMBERS. Application for membership in this Church, either upon profession of faith, or upon recommendation from other churches, shall be made to the Pastor or to the Examining Committee; at the meetings of which Committee to act upon such application any member of the Church may be present and participate in the examination of candidates; provided, that applicants may come before the Church in the first instance, if they prefer.

The Committee, on satisfactory evidence of the fitness of the applicants, shall cause their names to be propounded to the congregation at least one week previous to their public admission, and, no objection having been made meantime, they shall, at a subsequent meeting of the Church (which for action on the admission and dismission of members, may be on the day of the Preparatory Lecture previous to the Communion), be recommended by the Examining Committee, and if approved by the Church they shall be received as members—those on profession, on a public statement of their faith and by entering into public covenant with God and this Church, and those on the recommendation of other Churches, on entering into covenant relations with this Church.

Sec. 2. Objection to the admission of individuals propounded must be presented to the Examining Committee on or before the day of the vote for their admission, at which time the Committee shall present such objection, with their advisement, for the action of the Church, or the objector may make his own statement directly to the Church.

Sec. 3. In special cases the Church or the Examining Committee may, by vote, instruct the Pastor and a sub-committee to examine candidates in private, and in case of their inability to be present in the Church, to admit to membership and to the sacraments at their residences.

Sec. 4. Dismission of Members. — Letters of dismission and recommendation to Evangelical Churches, shall be given by vote of the Church or by the Examining Committee to members in good standing who apply for them. All requests for letters should be made in writing.

A letter of dismission and recommendation from this Church is given to some particular Church, and is not to be regarded as valid unless presented within one year from its date and this Church notified of its acceptance. Members who remove from the bounds of this Church, or are absent therefrom more than twelve months, shall either take letters and unite with some other Evangelical Church, or as often as once a year, by letter addressed to the Clerk, inform the Church of their spiritual state and the reason why they do not unite with some other Church. Failing to do either for the space of two years, the name of such person shall be dropped from the roll of members, but may be reinstated at any time upon good cause shown.

If any member be convinced that he or she is not truly regenerate, but that a profession was made under self-deception, and shall request a dissolution of connection with this Church, if there be no scandal requiring discipline, the request shall be granted after due labor first used, by a simple declaration of the facts which vote shall be publicly annonnced at the next communion season.

Any member desiring to withdraw from this to unite with any other Church on account of any offense, or for better edification shall, in a letter signifying his wishes and reasons, apply to be first released from obligation to this Church. Any other mode of withdrawing will be deemed irregular and censurable.

SEC. 5. MEMBERS OF OTHER CHURCHES.—It is expected that members of other Churches, who may commune with this Church for more than one year, will request dismission from their respective Churches and admission to this, unless satisfactory reasons shall be assigned for the delay.

ARTICLE VI.—DISCIPLINE.

SEC. 1. This Church regards Matthew XVIII: 15-17, as a divine directory of the principle, the spirit, and, so far as practicable, of the process of Church Discipline.

SEC. 2. In all cases of private offense, where the preliminary measures prescribed in the XVIIIth of Matthew shall have been taken, and no satisfactory result obtained, complaint may be made to the Examining Committee.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Examining Committee to inquire after all public offenses which shall come to their knowledge, by complaint or otherwise.

SEC. 4. All complaints made to the Committee shall be in writing, stating explicitly the several charges, and be signed by the person making them.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the Committee to ascertain the facts in each case which shall come before them, and if they shall vote to proceed to a formal trial, which shall be had in all cases before censure shall be inflicted, except on the confession and waiver of trial by the accused, they shall appoint a time for a hearing, and summon the accused to be present, furnishing him with a written copy of the charges and the names of witnesses relied on for proof, at least one week before the trial.

SEC. 6. At the trial the accused may call to his aid any member of the Church, and in case of the non-appearance of the accused a member shall be appointed to defend his case.

The confession of the accused, the concurrence of two credible witnesses to the same fact, or circumstantial evidence which is fairly equivalent, shall be requisite for conviction.

SEC. 7. If after a fair and impartial trial the Committee shall find the charges sustained, they shall so inform the accused, personally if present, and through the person appointed to defend him if absent. From the decision of the Committee, notice being given at the time of rendering such decision, an appeal may be taken at any time within twenty days by the aggrieved party to an Ecclesiastical Council, or to a Board of Referees, mutually selected from approved Christian men (the accused to have the privilege of electing as to a Council or Board of Referees), who shall proceed to an examination of the case, having full authority to take any and all steps necessary to arrive at a just and righteous conclusion, which being attained shall be announced, with the censure to be inflicted in case of the sustaining of the charge or charges, and the action and decision so had and declared shall be final and binding upon all parties.

In case of no appeal the Committee shall, in case the charge or charges are sustained, determine upon the censure to be inflicted, and administer the same.

SEC. 8. The censures to be inflicted on offenders are private reproof, public admonition, suspension, or excommunication, according to the aggravation of the offense. Any act of extreme censure shall be publicly announced to the congregation from the pulpit on the Sabbath.

ARTICLE VII.—ORDINANCES.

SEC. 1. THE LORD'S SUPPER shall be celebrated ordinarily on the first Sabbath of each alternate month, beginning with the first Sabbath in February. Preparatory Lecture on Thursday evening preceding.

SEC. 2. BAPTISM will be administered to those uniting with the Church, on profession of faith, who have not been previously baptized.

Children, one or both of whose parents are believers, may be baptized on the second Sabbath in June and October, and at other times at the discretion of the Minister.

Parents will furnish to the Clerk or Pastor, in writing, their own names, and THE NAMES IN FULL AND DATE OF BIRTH of children presented for baptism, for the permanent records of the Church.

ARTICLE VIII.—CONTRIBUTIONS.

SEC. 1. Contributions for benevolent objects shall be solicited in the Congregation according to the following schedule:

Foreign Missions, on first Sabbath in January.
Home Missions, on first Sabbath in March.
Tract Society and Freedmen, on first Sabbath in May.
American Congregational Union, on first Sabbath in July.
Church Sabbath School, on first Sabbath in September.
American Bible Society, on first Sabbath in November.
And for the Church Fund and for the poor of the Church, on Communion Sabbaths.

SEC. 2. Contributions to other objects may be made on the recommendation of the Examining Committee.

ARTICLE IX.—THE SABBATH SCHOOL.

SEC. 1. The Sabbath School shall be under the special care of the Church and its officers.

SEC. 2. The officers of the School shall be a Superintendent, one or more Assistant Superintendents, a Secretary and Assistant Secretary, a Treasurer, Librarians, Chorister and Organist, who shall be chosen annually, either by ballot or viva voce vote by the teachers and scholars.

ARTICLE X.—AMENDMENTS AND BY-LAWS.

SEC. 1. No alteration of this Constitution shall be considered unless a notice containing the proposed alteration shall have been given in writing at a previous business meeting.

SEC. 2. No amendment shall be adopted except by a vote of two-thirds of those legally entitled to vote, who are present and voting on such amendment at a regular business meeting, or one adjourned therefrom, or one specially called therefor, by notice not less than four weeks previous from the pulpit on the Sabbath.

SEC. 3. BY-LAWS to carry out the provisions of this Constitution may be enacted at any business meeting.

COMPACT BETWEEN THE CHURCH AND THE SOCIETY.

ARTICLE I.—PRINCIPLE OF AGREEMENT.

All the spiritual interests and arrangements of the Church, including the conduct of public worship and religious meetings, and the Sabbath School with its superintendence, shall be under the exclusive control of the Church; and all the financial and other secular interests and arrangements of the Congregation, shall be under the exclusive control of the Society.

PROVIDED, That the control and disposition of all moneys collected for the benevolent objects of the Church and for the administration of its ordinances, shall be under the control of the Church. This principle shall determine all doubtful cases; and in the spirit of this rule the succeeding articles are adopted.

ARTICLE II.—PROPERTY.

The Society, through its Trustees, shall hold the property, receive and disburse the income, appoint the Sexton, and make all pecuniary engagements and payments.

ART. III.—CALLING AND DISMISSING A PASTOR.

In the choice, settlement, and dismissal of a Pastor, the Society shall never act in advance of the Church. If a call shall be voted by the Church, such vote shall be certified by the Clerk of the Church to the Society, with a request from the Church that the Society concur. The Society shall then vote to concur or not to concur, and shall have the exclusive right to fix the salary. In calling a Council to advise respecting the dismissal of a Pastor, the concurrence of the Society with the Church need not be asked; but the Society alone can vote compensation.

ARTICLE IV.—PULPIT SUPPLY.

Whenever the pulpit is vacant by the absence or dismission of a Pastor, the Church, by its Examining Committee, shall provide a temporary supply, and the Trustees of the Society, in consultation with the Examining Committee, shall determine the compensation.

No person shall continue as supply longer than three months without a concurrent vote of the Church and Society.

ARTICLE V.—SACRED MUSIC.

The Examining Committee of the Church and the Trustees of the Society shall be a joint committee to provide sacred music, including the selection of Chorister and Organist. The control of the necessary expenses connected with the music shall be with the Society, through its Trustees.

ARTICLE VI.—CONTROL OF THE SANCTUARY.

The Pastor shall have liberty to use the Church edifice at his discretion, to promote the spiritual interests of the Church and Congregation; the Church, also, may use the same for religious meetings; but for all other purposes the control of the building shall be with the Society through its Trustees, who shall not allow it to be used for unworthy and worldly purposes, nor for any use which shall interfere with the arrangements of the Church and the Pastor.

ARTICLE VII.—ALTERATION OF COMPACT.

These Articles of mutual agreement for the adjustment of the spiritual and secular relations of the Church and the Society, having been adopted by separate vote of each and placed by each in its book of records, can be altered in whole or in part only in the same way.

Adopted by the Church May 16th, 1879, and by the Society April 7, 1880.

III. FORMULAS OF THE CHURCH.

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

Persons wishing to be received as members of this Church will meet the Examining Committee and give a statement of their religious experience, or present letters of recommendation from other Churches.

If the Committee are satisfied of their fitness, they shall cause their names to be propounded to the Congregation at least one week previous to their admission.

Having been accepted by vote of the Church, they shall be received into the communion of the Church according to the following form:

FORM FOR RECEPTION OF MEMBERS.

"With the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation."—Rom., x: 10.

Address by the Minister.

The following named persons, having given evidence of their Christian faith, are now to be publicly recognized and received to the membership of this Church. As their names are called they will present themselves before the Table of the Lord, to signify assent to our common belief, and to enter into covenant.

[The names being read, the persons come forward and the minister proceeds.]

Beloved Friends:—Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

You now present yourselves to make profession of your faith in Jesus Christ, to own yourselves His disciples, and to enter into communion and fellowship with His Church. In this public manner you desire to renew and confirm the vows which you have made in secret. You do not stand here alone. You know whom you have believed. At the bidding of Christ and in His strength, you undertake this duty. Faithful to Him, His grace and love sha keep you.

The following is the summary of Christian Doctrine adopte by this Church:

Confession of Faith.

1st. We believe in one only living and true God, the Fathe the Son, and the Holy Ghost, who created all things, and uphol and governs all creatures and their affairs, according to the hol wise and eternal counsel of His own will.

2d. We believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testamen to be the inspired word of God, and the only sufficient and i fallible rule of faith and practice.

3d. We believe that God at first made man in his own imag and entered into a covenant of life with him on condition of pe fect obedience; and that our first parents, by transgressing th command of God, fell from their state of holiness, and broug sin and misery upon all their posterity.

4th. We believe that God so loved the world that he gave h only begotten Son, Jesus Christ, to assume our nature, and by h sufferings and death to make atonement for sin; and that throug his atonement all who repent and believe in him are pardoned an sanctified, and will finally obtain eternal life.

5th. We believe that all men are by nature so wholly oppose to the government of God, and so averse to the Gospel, that no do repent of sin and believe in Jesus Christ, except through th influence of the Holy Ghost on their hearts.

6th. We believe that God has established a visible Churc among men, with which it is the duty of all Christians to be unite that Baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of the Christia Church, which, together with the Christian Sabbath, are of pe petual obligation in the Church.

7th. We believe that there will be a Resurrection of the Dea and a final Judgment; after which the wicked shall go away in everlasting punishment; but the righteous into life eternal.

To these articles of our faith, as far as understood, do you gi your cordial assent? [The candidate will answer, "I do."]

Baptism.

Through the faith of Christian parents, some of you have ready received baptism. Having evidence, as we believe, of od's fidelity to His covenant in your conversion, you do now by is public act of consecration assume for yourselves the covenant en made for you by others, and the seal of it need not be peated.

You who have not received the outward seal of the covenant ll now present yourselves for Baptism.

[Formula for Baptism.]—A. B., I baptize thee in the name of e Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Covenant with the Church.

Having confessed your faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, you will w enter into covenant with God and with this Church.

You do now, in the presence of God, the searcher of hearts, d before angels and men, avow the Lord Jehovah to be your od, loving the Father as your Father, trusting in His Son Jesus hrist as your only Saviour, and welcoming the Holy Spirit as ur Comforter and Sanctifier; and professing true sorrow for your ns and renouncing them forever, you do now publicly devote urself to God, promising to walk before Him in obedience and love l your future life. You do cheerfully and heartily promise that the sanctuary, the family, and the closet, and in every relation d situation of life, you will be a true disciple of Christ, and by e discharge of all your public and private duties, commend His ospel to the world. You, moreover, covenant that you will walk ith this Church in all the ordinances of the Gospel, in attendance on its meetings for prayer, its public worship and its sacraments, love and charity with its members, conscientiously laboring to romote its purity, peace, union, and edification. Humbly relying n the help of God, do you thus covenant and promise? [The ndidate will answer, "I do."]

The Lord hear and accept you, confirm you with His covenant peace, strengthen you to do His will, and maintain you in un-earied obedience until you come in the fullness of grace to His eavenly Kingdom.

Fellowship of the Church.

[The members of the Church rise in salutation and welcome.]

Most affectionately, then, do we the members of this Church receive you to our Christian fellowship and Communion. We welcome you to all the ordinances and privileges of the Christian Church. We break with you this Bread of Life. We share with you this Cup of Blessing. We promise on our part to dwell with you while together here in the unity of the children of God; to trust you in love as members of the body of Christ; to extend to you fraternal sympathy and counsel in trials and afflictions; to be helpers of your faith, and to seek your advancement in the life and likeness of Him whose name we bear.

From you in turn we look for counsel and co-operation. With us you are to be fellow-helpers to the truth of the Gospel. Together we are to labor for the Master, to strive for the edification of this Church, and to rejoice in its progress.

In token of our confidence and brotherly love, receive the hand of welcome.

[Here the Minister, if he so pleases, may take the new members severally by the hand, repeating to each some appropriate passage of Scripture.]

[The Church still standing, the Minister adds:]

And now, beloved, we commend you unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named; that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might by His Spirit in the inner man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth and length and depth and height, and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God.

The God of Peace, who brought again from the dead the Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well pleasing in His sight through Jesus Christ.

Now unto Him who is able to keep us from falling, and to present us faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

BAPTISM OF CHILDREN.

"For the promise is unto you and to your children."—Acts 11:39.

[At the morning service of the appointed Sunday, before the ermon, while a chant is being sung by the Choir, the parents pre- ent their children for baptism. Then the Minister addresses the arents as follows:]

Christian Parents:—Encouraged by the terms of the ever- sting promise, and animated by the tender regard evinced by our aviour for the little ones, you present your children to receive pon them the seal of God's covenant, and to dedicate them to od in the ordinance of Baptism. In so doing you recognize the reciousness of your own covenant relation to the Lord, and you esire that your offspring, also, shall enjoy its privileges.

Relying on promised grace, you engage to instruct these chil- ren in the knowledge of Divine Truth and in the way of salvation hrough Jesus Christ; to walk before them in the grace and beauty f the Christian life, to seek their early renewal of heart, and to ndeavor, in all ways, to secure their highest usefulness in this orld and their happiness in the world to come.

This you heartily engage? [The parents will answer, "I do."]

[Formula for Baptism.] A. B. is the name of this child, whom baptize in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

[After which the members of the Church rise, and the Minister dds:]

We, then, the members of this Church, receive these children nto special relationship of love and care; and we promise to aid ou in your parental work by our sympathy, our example, and our rayers. The Lord bless and keep you and your house, and bring ou and them, with all the families that call on His name, into the ansions of His everlasting rest. Amen.

[Prayer is offered, and while another chant is being sung, the arents retire.]

IV. STANDING APPOINTMENTS OF THE CHURCH.

"Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together."—Heb. x:25.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

1. Public Worship on the Lord's Day at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. from April 1st to October 1st, and at 7 P. M. from October 1st to April 1st.

CHRONOLOGICAL LIST OF MEMBERS.

"One shall say I am the Lord's, and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the Lord, and surname himself by the name of Israel."—Isaiah XLIV: 5.

EXPLANATIONS.

The year of admission is placed over the name.

C, placed before the name, indicates those from Carlisle who united with this church at the time of its organization.

L, placed before a name, signifies that the person was received by letter from another Church; all others were received on confession of their faith.

C, placed after the name, indicates those who in August, 1883, returned to their separate Church in Carlisle.

L, placed after the name, signifies that the person has been dismissed by letter to another Church.

An asterisk placed after the name signifies that the person is deceased.

D, placed after the name, signifies that the person was removed by discipline, which includes those from whom watch has been withdrawn on account of long absence, and those whose names have been dropped from the roll at their own request.

The date following the letters C, L and D is the date of dissolution of Church connection, as signified by those letters.

The date following the asterisk is the date of decease.

The name inclosed in a parenthesis, following the Christian name of a female, was her maiden name.

The names of husband and wife, standing together in the Catalogue, are connected with a brace.

The number at the left of the name in this list is retained in the alphabetical list and in the list of "Present Members."

Persons withdrawing their connection, and subsequently uniting, retain their original number with the addition of the letter "a" on the second admission and "b" on the third; the year of such subsequent admission being indicated in connection with the name as previously entered.

Females admitted previous to marriage retain their original number after marriage.
